Full-time Class teacher fixed term till 31st August 2027 required for September 2026.

MPS1 to MPS6 for an Early Years/ Key stage one class teacher.

If you would like a role where every day is different and where the opportunity to make a difference at our school is appealing to you, then we would like to hear from you.

Governors are seeking to appoint a Teacher with and specialism in Early Years with a proven track record of improving children's outcomes across the curriculum, to join our happy, hardworking and dedicated team.

This is a full-time, fixed term teaching post and is an exciting opportunity for a suitably skilled and passionate teacher to become part of our friendly, vibrant church school. This is an extremely rewarding role for someone who has a relentless drive to make a difference and a commitment to ensure that the children at our school reach their full potential.

We require someone who:

- Is organised, creative and energetic.
- Relishes the challenge of working with pupils.
- Wants to make a difference by supporting the pupils with learning, social and emotional development.
- Has high expectations of self and others.
- Is reliable, hardworking, and prepared to go the 'extra mile' for our children.
- Is enthusiastic and willing to contribute to the life of our school.
- Is a great communicator
- Is passionate and committed to see every child achieve their very best
- Enjoys their work, has a positive outlook and is motivated to develop
- Is committed to team work and contributing to the wider life of the school
- Is creative and thinks outside the box
- Is able to share and support our nurturing, caring ethos and reach out to parents in a positive, warm manner
